We would like to invite you to a live interactive theatre performance play which allows important perspectives and reflections on the eve of Canada’s 150 celebration. This production is presented in partnership with: The Office of the Vice President Academic and Provost; Associate Vice President, Student Affairs; the Faculty of Fine Arts, the Department of Theatre; the Centre for Global Studies; the Centre for Asia-Pacific Initiatives; UVic Equity and Human Rights Office and the Learning and Teaching Centre.

The play critically explores newcomers, immigrants and refugees’ narratives of relocation, resilience, settlement, and integration. The actors are youth from various ethnic and culturally diverse backgrounds who will share their stories of their lived and living experiences in the worlds of immigration, migration and settlement. It also involves a “talk back” session, after the play, to engage the audience in interactive theatre dialogue.

The Director of this play is Nigerian born Taiwo Okunola Afolabi and the Artistic Team consists of Annie Konstantinova (Israeli), Jasmine Li (Chinese American), Megan Chandler (Guyanese Canadian), Olivia Wheeler (Canadian and Eurasian), Samer Alkhatib (Syrian), Thiptawan Uchai (Thai), Tianxu Zhao (Chinese) and Victoria Stark (Canadian).

We hope to see you there to participate in fostering inclusive community-building at UVic and in supporting community-based theatre as a positive intervention!

When: Thursday, June 29th
Time: 2PM
Where: UVic Quad – Outdoors, in front of the McPherson Library
Contact: Anita Girvan agirvan@uvic.ca